Rev. George Harold Talbott,
Passaic,
New Jersey.

Dear Mr. Talbott:

We certainly greatly regret that by any omission we failed to give you and your church all the space that was deserved. Personally, I do not handle the news as it comes in and much is sent of which I know nothing. You know of course that we receive a great mass of material and of necessity have to reduce the copy to a minimum. We could print a hundred pages each week with that which comes in to us. I hope, sir, that we can re-establish ourselves with you and your people for we are greatly in need of subscribers having lost many as have other religious papers.

Very sincerely yours,

WCR*E

Mrs. Josephine Tompkins,
Hunter,
New York.

Dear Mrs. Tompkins:

I received your letter of February 4th some days ago. Of course, I cannot pass upon your manuscript until I have seen it but I refer the matter to Miss McKinney who has charge of the material we print especially for children. I may tell you that under our present financial condition we cannot make a money payment as we are very hard pressed. I doubt not that you desire that, which is of course perfectly proper.

Yours most sincerely,

WCR*E

Mr. R. C. Tillinghast,
256 Broadway,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Tillinghast:

I thank you for your letter of February 13th. I did not think you were captious in any way. The fact is that I have so many articles coming in to me that I am unable to make selections that will please everybody. I am always glad to hear from you and to see you.

Yours most sincerely,

W. C. Robinson, D.D.,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Dr. Robinson;

Since calling on you recently I have had in mind to express to you my hope that I did not seem unduly captious or fail to appreciate the perplexing problems which an editor has. Every job that is worth while has them, in proportion to the influence of the job, and I dont want to add even a trifle.

I have waited for the appearance of your 'comment' re the Federal Council, and commend same. Frankly, I believe that their expressed attitude toward Christian Missions would have a wider appeal because it is more deeply significant, but the judgement of the Editor must prevail.

I trust, also, that you did not misunderstand my passing remark about 'little sermons' being passe. What I meant was to refer to the present surplus of sermons and'preachers', altho I think not of trained ministers or of Teaching Elders who can teach.

Hoping that my readiness to express my views will not obscure my desire and willingness to be helpful,

Yours truly,

R. C. Tillinghast

P.S. I was pleased to learn that you had even noticed my remarks re. "Mass Production".

Rev. J. Mont Travis, D.D.,
651 High Street,
Denver, Colo.

Dear Dr. Travis:

Anticipating the General Assembly which is to meet in your city, we would very much like an article relative to the various churches. I am sorry that we cannot pay money for this but hope your interest will be sufficient for you to give us such an article. It need not be too long and yet it would be well to make mention of each of the churches. If not too much trouble, you might find out if they have cuts of the edifice or the pastor and would be willing to forward them to us. I write to you because I feel such confidence in your loyal friendship.

Yours most sincerely,

The Presbyterian:-

There is no justifiable reason for letting this habit of postponing the matter of renewing our subscriptions to our papers & (getting such a hold of us) (no) Magazines especially when we know that there is question as to the RENEWAL. We simply cannot get along without the Presbyterian. It is a very great help in keeping our faith strong and our loyalty to the great Standards of the church sounding true. We greatly admire your courage for it takes courage to say some of the things thst you say.

I feel the waight of your argument for Commissioners to the Gen. Assembly. I have always contended for the Rotary system but the time has come when men who are true to the teachings of the Book and our great church are to be choosen rather than first timers even tho they may have been to the Assembly several times before.

I am enclosing check for the $2.00 renewal subscription.

I am yours:- P. A. Finkham

Dear Mr. Tinkham:

I thank you very much for your letter accompanying your renewal subscription. Of course, we like everybody to like THE PRESBYTERIAN and we are grateful when we find new evidence of it.

Yours most sincerely,

Rev. Courtland Robinson,
Editor, The Presbyterian,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Doctor Robinson:-

I trust that you may find a place in your valued paper for the enclosed article. I feel very strongly that something of the kind should be brought to the attention of the churches.

With much appreciation and enjoyment of your editorials and general conduct of the paper, I am,

Sincerely,

(Mrs. H. N.) Mabel T. Topping.

P. S.

If you cannot use this article, kindly advise me and I will send return postage.

Dear Friends:

I am indeed greatly shocked at the tragedy that has come into your family circle. I hope that Leland is making a good recovery but I judged he is seriously ill. Please express my sympathy to him. I am so sorry that this great trouble has come onto you.

Most cordially yours,
